

Reference list:

Map

Chart of the Pacific Ocean, 1798, by Aaron Arrowsmith, The Collection of the State Library of NSW

Photo

1. Campbell, Archibald James, between 1870 and 1929, Albatross rookery on edge of cliff, National Library of Australia, nla.obj-147134527
2. Canavaggio, Nauru, Pacific Islands. C.1943-02. Evacuation of civilians from Nauru and Ocean Island. (Naval Historical Collection), Australian War Memorial Photograph Collection, 305229/01
3. Charles Maurice Yonge, 1928 or 1929, Collection of pearls, Thursday Island, Queensland, National Library of Australia, nla.obj-145079311
4. Charles Maurice Yonge, 1928 or 1929, Islander casting a net for sardines, Meer Island, Queensland, National Library of Australia, nla.obj-145070411
5. Charles Maurice Yonge, 1928 or 1929, Islander displays the size of the catch after four net casts, Meer Island, Queensland, National Library of Australia, nla.obj-145072203
6. Charles Maurice Yonge, 1928 or 1929, Men spearing fish from a boat, Meer Island, Queensland, National Library of Australia, nla.obj-145076829
7. Charles Maurice Yonge, 1928 or 1929, Stacks of pearl shells, Thursday Island, Queensland, National Library of Australia, nla.obj-145079568
8. Nauru. C.1940. Overhead cable conveyor at the British Phosphate Commission's mine. (Naval Historical Collection), Australian War Memorial Photograph Collection, 304375
9. 193-?, Phosphate workings - a worked out field, National Library of Australia, nla.obj-143785169
10. Nauru Island, 1945-09-16. The steel cantilever loading wharf of the British Phosphate Commission which was wrecked by a German raider in the opening stages of the war, Australian War Memorial Photograph Collection, 117310
11. Worked out phosphate fields leaving coral pinnacles on Nauru ca. 1942, Brisbane John Oxley Library, State Library of Queensland; 2010, 27224 Nauru Island Photograph Album